Description: Part of the range of fabrics that are designed by, or exclusive to us, Cloth 22 Weaves is a wonderfully expressive collection of woven linen, cotton, and wool blends in an array of nature's hues, textures, and weights. The lure of the open air, in particular the vast and varied landscapes of the North American National Parks have inspired this collection. Bryce Canyon features an irregular geometric pattern woven on a natural background, evocative of the magic of the intricate rock formations (known as Hoodoos) in Utah's
