

SOFAS & STUFF

The amount of fabric shown above is indicated by the dimension.

Morris & Co Strawberry Thief Indigo/Mineral

Composition: 100% Cotton

Repeat: Horizontal 46.0cm Vertical 53.0cm

Martindale: 20000

Description: An enticing design depicting cheeky birds pecking at delicious strawberries. Reproduced with subtle tone variations to retain the look of the original block-printed version. Designed in 1883, William Morris named this fabric after the thrushes which stole strawberries from his kitchen garden at Kelmscott Manor. Part of our own edit of timeless Morris & Co. prints from Sanderson, encompassing some of the best-loved and most versatile of his designs.